KALININGRAD IS OF NO CONCERN TO LITHUANIAN POLITICIANS, SAYS REGION'S DEPUTY CHIEF KOOZNESSOVA

KALININGRAD, Aug 08, BNS - Irina Kuznetsova, deputy chief of Kaliningrad's regional administration. told BNS that the participants of the "Potsdam and Lithuania" discussion displayed contempt for all norms of international law. Kuznetsova further commented that while the Russian claim to the Kaliningrad region was clear, Lithuania's claim to Klaipeda is not. She believes that Lithuania's borders should have reverted to those of 1938 when the Lithuanian Constitution was adopted.

US DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY APOLOGIZES FOR MISLEADING REPORT ON SECURITY AT IGNALINA POWER PLANT

VILNIUS, Aug 10, BNS - The US Department of Energy apologized to the Lithuanian government for a recent report on security conditions at the Ignalina atomic power plant in Eastern Lithuania. This material does not represent the official position of the department with respect to the Ignalina atomic power plant.

The Swedish director of an international project on atomic security, Jan Nistad, who spent several years working in Lithuania, received a letter of apology from the US Department of Energy recently for its report "Most Dangerous Reactors." This report, based on data from 1993, described Ignalina as one of the world's most dangerous reactors which should be shut down.
